

Williams College
Computer Science Department
Half-time Visiting Faculty Position

The Department of Computer Science at Williams College invites applications for an anticipated one-semester, half-time visiting faculty position in the spring of 2010. We are particularly interested in candidates who can teach an undergraduate course in artificial intelligence or a related field.

Candidates should either hold or be pursuing a Ph.D. in computer science or a closely related discipline. This position might be particularly attractive to candidates who are pursuing an advanced degree and seek the opportunity to incorporate additional classroom experience in their professional preparation. Applications in the form of a vita, a teaching statement, and three letters of reference, at least one of which speaks to the candidate's promise as a teacher, may be sent to:

Professor Thomas Murtagh, Chair
Department of Computer Science
TCL, 47 Lab Campus Drive
Williams College
Williamstown, MA 01267

Electronic mail may be sent to cssearch@cs.williams.edu. Applications should be submitted by October 15, 2009 and will be considered until the position is filled.

The Department of Computer Science consists of eight faculty members supporting a thriving undergraduate computer science major in a congenial working environment with small classes, excellent students, and state-of-the-art facilities. Williams College is a highly selective, coeducational, liberal arts college of 2100 students located in the scenic Berkshires of Western Massachusetts.

Beyond meeting fully its legal obligations for non-discrimination, Williams College is committed to building a diverse and inclusive community where members from all backgrounds can live, learn, and thrive.
